- ◆ Describe the process of receiving feedback including common emotional triggers.
- ◆ Identify strategies to optimize receiving and giving feedback.

Professional Identity Formation and Professionalism — Dr Cathy Cervin

- ◆ Compare and contrast a growth mindset vs a fixed mindset.
- ◆ Describe and discuss tools and strategies to support professional identity formation.

Apps That Have Helped Make Me a Better Clinician — Dr. Adam Moir

- ◆ Describe how twitter can help them as faculty members.
- ◆ Identify apps that can help with clinical practice and teaching.

Preceptoring a Learner in Difficulty — Dr. James Goertzen

- ◆ Describe preceptor challenges when supervising a learner in difficulty.
- ◆ Apply effective strategies for identifying learners in difficulty and developing an educational diagnosis.

Preparing For and Facilitating a Simulation Case— Dr. Tyler Johnston

- ◆ Examine the aspects of a simulation lab and use them to help facilitate a simulation scenario.
- ◆ Determine what (the skill/knowledge/lesson) they want the learners to gain from the exercise and how it will be acquired.

Staying Well During Remediation, Your Learner and You — Dr. Cathy Cervin

- ◆ Describe a framework for and key elements of an effective remediation plan and apply this knowledge to draft a remediation plan.
- ◆ Outline challenges in implementing remediation and list strategies to mitigate the challenges .

Evaluating and Debriefing a Simulation Scenario— Dr. Tyler Johnston

- ◆ Identify key elements to focus on when evaluating a simulation session.
- ◆ Lead effective debrief sessions following the facilitation of a simulation case.

Professional Behaviour — Dr. Adam Moir

- ◆ Describe professional behaviour and identify when it is lacking.
- ◆ Develop a plan of what to do to address a gap in professional behaviour.

Booth Style Networking — All Speakers

- ◆ Initiate discussions with individuals to build on their comprehension and application of conference content.
- ◆ Connect locally with fellow faculty members and further develop their professional network.

Overall Conference

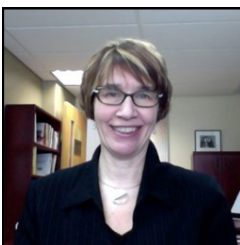

At the end of this conference participants will be able to:

- ◆ Describe strategies to enhance giving and receiving both evaluations and feedback.
- ◆ Identify tools and resources to enrich teaching and learning opportunities.
- ◆ Connect locally with fellow faculty members and further develop their professional network.

Speaker Biographies

Dr. James Goertzen is Professor of Family Medicine and Assistant Dean of CEPD at the Northern Ontario School of Medicine and is an AMS Phoenix Fellow with a focus on supporting compassionate physician leadership development in Northern Ontario. Dr. Goertzen was awarded the 2016 Association of Faculties of Medicine of Canada Award for Outstanding Contributions to Faculty Development in Canada along with the 2013 Ian McWhinney Family Medicine Education Award for his unique contributions to family medicine education in Canada. Dr. Goertzen has a particular interest in supporting community based faculty with their further development as clinicians, educators, and scholars and he has a passion for supporting the leadership development of others.

Dr. Catherine (Cathy) Cervin was appointed the first Vice Dean Academic, of the Northern Ontario School of Medicine (NOSM) on January 1, 2018. She joined NOSM in 2011 as Associate Dean, Postgraduate Education. After training at the University of Toronto and Dalhousie University, Dr. Cervin began her career practicing family medicine in the Northern Ontario communities of Timmins and Sault Ste. Marie before pursuing an academic career in the Department of Family Medicine at Dalhousie University. Dr. Cervin received an Award of Excellence from the CFPC in 2010 and has held multiple positions with the CFPC including being a member of the Section of Teachers Executive, chair of the Board of Examiners, chair of the Honours and Awards Committee, and chair of the Foundation for Advancing Family Medicine.

Dr. Adam Moir completed his clerkship here in Huntsville and is a graduate of the family medicine residency program at NOSM. Based in Dryden, Ontario, his rural practice includes work in emergency medicine, long term care and primary care. Since graduating he's pursued special interests in ultrasound, patient safety and medical education. Dr. Moir spent 5 years as the Academic Coordinator for the NOSM family medicine residency program before becoming Medical Director, Faculty Development within the CEPD department at NOSM this past February. In 2012 he was awarded the Patient's Choice Award through the OMA and Patient's Choice Association. Dr. Moir was also voted NOSM Family Medicine preceptor of the year by West campus residents in 2012.

Dr. Tyler Johnston completed medical school at McMaster University and residency training in emergency medicine at Dalhousie University. As an emergency physician in Muskoka, Dr. Johnston is a passionate preceptor of the many learners who visit each year. He was awarded the special recognition award from the 2016 and 2018 Muskoka Clerkship students. Dr. Johnston is responsible for establishing Huntsville's simulation lab. He worked with NOSM and the Huntsville Physicians LEG to launch the program and continues to recruit and train facilitators, acquire equipment, and write cases for this initiative. His knowledge of and dedication to simulation teaching have been significant contributors to the success of this program. Dr. Johnston also has a Master's in Public Health from Harvard University.

Honouring Our Colleagues

Dr. Paul Bastedo

Dr. Jan Goossens

Dr. Pam McDermott

Dr. Malcolm Wilson

These wonderful people are entering new chapters in their lives. The conference dinner, catered by 3 Guys and a Stove, will be a time to reminisce and thank them for their contributions to our medical and teaching community here in Huntsville.

LEG members wishing to bring a non-LEG member to the dinner are asked to let Krista Hailstone know their intention when they register. The cost for non-LEG members to attend the dinner is $50. Payment must be received by Friday October 12th.
